

SINCERITY OF JAPS CERTAIN

Reception Accorded American Fleet Not Equalled Since Fleet Sailed.

ADMIRAL SPERRY PLEASED

ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE TO BE PRESENTED WEDNESDAY.

Tokio, Oct. 20.—The reception accorded the American Atlantic fleet by the government and people of Japan is conceded by the American naval officials to be the heartiest and the most perfectly carried out of the many receptions received by the fleet since it sailed from Hampton Roads. Rear Admiral Sperry said to the Associated Press today that he was utterly unable to say how it had been accomplished; but that the welcome given the fleet and its officers and men here has been so carefully planned and carried out to the most minute detail that a lasting impression has been stamped upon the mind of every American who has witnessed it.

The men of the American and Japanese fleets are fraternizing everywhere throughout Tokyo and Yokohama. Every wish of the American sailors is anticipated and each bluejacket finds an English-speaking guide among the Japanese sailors. The American uniform is the "open sesame" everywhere, the cordiality of the Japanese extending even to the inhabitants of the most remote villages.

Japs Are Sincere.

It is impossible to doubt the sincerity of the Japanese. American officers and sailors are already beginning to understand the fact that the evident desire on the part of the Japanese for the friendship of America is not founded upon opportunism; but finds its source in a sincere desire to show that such friendship, at least on the part of Japan, has existed always, and that this visit of the fleet merely affords the Japanese an opportunity for the expression of that feeling.

There can be no doubt that the simultaneous visits of the American expedition commission, the Pacific coast business men and the Atlantic fleet are a part of an organized plan of the Japanese to finally wipe out all misunderstanding between Japan and America and to give the visiting Americans an insight into the real attitude of Japan toward the United States.

It is absolutely certain that already the desired effect upon the Americans has been produced. Since the arrival of the fleet not a single unpleasant incident has occurred, though the sailors of both fleets are swarming through the towns about Yokohama and Tokio.

Appreciated by Sperry.

Speaking at the dinner given by Ambassador O'Brien last night, Admiral Sperry said that he was unable to account for the perfect way in which the reception to himself and his men had been carried out; but that it certainly surpassed anything of the kind that he had ever seen.

Early on Tuesday morning Admiral Sperry will be received at the imperial palace and on the morning of Wednesday the admirals and captains of the fleet will be the guests of the emperor at the palace. Admiral Sperry will convey to the emperor a message from President Roosevelt. The words of this message have not been given out, but there is reason to believe that it breathes a spirit of friendship and sympathy and expresses keen appreciation of the traditional friendship between the two nations and an earnest wish for the strengthening and continuance of the friendly relations of the past.

Rule May Be Broken.

It is uncertain what reply the emperor will make when this message is presented by Admiral Sperry, but it is considered possible that he may break his rule and make some statement in terms similar to those used by President Roosevelt.

Three thousand sailors from the American fleet are granted shore liberty daily, and it is remarkable that, notwithstanding their long confinement aboardship, not a single difficulty has been reported, bearing out the statement of Admiral Sperry, made in one of his speeches here, that the American sailor of today is the result of that development and education which Japan is seeking in every department of her national life.

Americans throughout Japan are enthusiastic regarding the visit of the fleet and the cordiality of the reception accorded their fellow countrymen, though the program is so elaborate and so fully carried out that at times it becomes almost monotonous. Still the visiting Americans are given the opportunity to see more of Japan than any ordinary tourist could possibly accomplish in the same time.

NO ALIEN OR COUNCIL FEES

Application of Mrs. Claudia Hains Refused by Justice in Brooklyn.

SENSATIONAL AFFIDAVIT

CHARGES AGAINST BROTHER OF SLAYER OF ANNIS.

New York, Oct. 19.—The application of Mrs. Claudia Hains for alimony and counsel fees to defend a suit for divorce brought by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., awaiting trial for killing William E. Annis, was denied by Justice Carr in Brooklyn today.

Mrs. Hains' request that she be granted the custody of her children also was denied. Annis was named as co-respondent in Captain Hains' suit for divorce.

Affidavit of Mrs. Hains.

Mrs. Hains' affidavit in reply to her husband's divorce suit was made public today. In it she declared that when Captain Hains returned from San Francisco to Fort Hancock on Sandy Hook on May 29 last, he accused her of intimacy with William E. Annis, basing his allegations on a letter which Captain Hains said he had received from his brother, Thomas Jenkins Hains. Mrs. Hains denied the accusation and at her suggestion Captain Hains invited Annis to their home, after which all three went riding in Annis' automobile. After they returned, Mrs. Hains avers, the captain and Annis sat up until 3 a. m., drinking and smoking, and seemed very friendly. She declares Captain Hains did not show his brother's letter to Annis nor ask him to explain the charges. On the following day, Mrs. Hains said, her husband went to call on his father, General P. C. Hains. He returned at 2 a. m. on June 1, and pulling her out of bed, again accused her of having had relations with Annis and threatened to shoot her.

Story of the Confession.

General Hains called that day, Mrs. Hains asserted, and upon hearing the captain's accusations, said he would shoot Annis on sight. Later that day Captain Hains' brother, T. Jenkins Hains, called with a lawyer and asked her a lot of questions while she was dazed. At the solicitation of Thomas Jenkins Hains, Mrs. Hains said she took a drink of whiskey, and then, at her husband's order, signed a paper which was not read to her. This, she believes, was the confession which they say she made. That night the post surgeon and some friends came and treated her for a lump over the eye which Mrs. Hains said she received from the captain. Early the following morning Captain Hains and his brother entered and with a pistol drove them out.

"My husband told me," Mrs. Hains declared, "that I would have to go out of the house the next day and if my mother would not take me I should go and live with Annis. As my husband dropped his pistol on the floor his brother said: 'Save that for the other party.'"

Brother Accused.

Continuing, Mrs. Hains denied that she had been guilty of any impropriety with Mr. Annis, and concluded: "I believe that my husband's act and the charges which he has made against me have been prompted by his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, who threatened to injure me for refusing his advances. He endeavored several times while my husband was away to make advances, going so far as to enter my room. I refused him and he declared that he would be revenged."
